AMUSEMENTS

Last Day of Fine Bill.

Today is the last day of that excellent bill which has been presented at the Bijou during the past week, and those who have not had an opportunity of seeing the four big acts should not fail to attend one of the performances.

The Bijou has had an excellent run the entire week, showing that theatre-goers appreciate good attractions, and will patronize them liberally.

For next week the management has already secured a number of star acts and it is expected that another good week's run will be experienced.

The posting of the baseball scores early in the evening has proved a pleasing feature with the patrons of the theatre.

The Orpheum.

The week's excellent bill at this popular little amusement house continues to draw unusually heavy business and the managers are confident that when the week's box office receipts are totalled tonight they will break all former records. Indeed the business of the house is growing so steadily week after week that Messrs. McIntire & Vucovich are considering plans to more than double the capacity of the place, besides other improvements for the convenience and comfort of their patrons.

Tonight will be the last opportunity of seeing the wonderful ventriloquist, Harry Moulton; the marvelously gifted female baritone singer, Bessie Babb; the clever dancers, Trask & Gladden, and the entertaining comedy sketch artists, Rowe & Clinton.

For next week Manager Vucovich has booked a bill that will prove a sensation when announced tomorrow morning, while for the next week he is negotiating for one of the most sensational and mystifying attractions on the vaudeville stage—the mysterious mechanical doll that actually breathes and lives.

"COFFEE DOESN'T HURT ME"
Tales That Are Told.

"I was one of the kind who wouldn't believe that coffee was hurting me," says a N. Y. woman. "You just couldn't convince me its use was trouble with the heart and stomach. I suffered from most of the time."

"My trouble finally got so bad I had to live on milk and toast almost entirely for three or four years. Still I loved the coffee and wouldn't believe it could do such damage."

"What I needed was to quit coffee and take nourishment in such form as my stomach could digest."

"I had read much about Postum, but never thought it would fit my case until one day I decided to quit coffee and give it a trial and make sure about it. So I got a package and carefully followed the directions."

"Soon I began to get better and was able to eat carefully selected foods without the aid of pepsin or other digestants and it was not long before I was really a new woman physically."

"Now I am healthy and sound, can eat anything and everything that comes along and I know this wonderful change is all due to my having quit coffee and got the nourishment I needed through this delicious Postum."

"My wonder is why everyone don't give up the old coffee and the troubles that go with it and build themselves up as I have done, with Postum."

Easy to prove by 10 days trial of Postum in place of coffee. The reward is big.

"There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

MANY SOLDIERS WILL BE IN MAY DAY PARADE

VOLUNTEER VETERAN FIREMEN HAVE PROMISE OF SEVERAL COMPANIES OF SOLDIERS AS WELL AS MARINES WITH BANDS.

The parade under the auspices of the Volunteer Veteran Firemen's Association on the morning of May 4 will be one of the largest that has been witnessed in this city for several years, arrangements having been completed yesterday by Mayor Goodman, C. Thiesen and Capt. Dixon B. Reed whereby troops from the local forts and navy yard, together with the two bands stationed at these two places, will participate.

Col. Newcombe, of Fort Barrancas, yesterday agreed to furnish four companies of coast artillery from the local forts, with the possibility of the number being increased. The band from Fort Barrancas will accompany the troops and furnish music in the parade.

Capt. Douglas, of the navy yard, will furnish a detachment of marines and one band.

Both Capt. Douglas and Col. Newcombe expressed their pleasure to the committee at being able to assist in making the coming May day celebration a success and extended many courtesies to the committee during their stay at the yard and fort.

"The seat of wear"

—that's the seat in XTRAGOOD children's pants. They'll last twice as long; that's because every pair is lined all the way through. It makes them cost a lot more at the factory but the price to you doesn't show it. Just the same as if a light-weight pair of pants was sewn inside of a heavier pair—Can't you see how that keeps the knees from knocking through and the seat from frazzling into holes? It gives that full "fashion-plate" look to the knickerbockers, too. Makes them set with grace and roominess.

Every part of an XTRAGOOD Suit is right. The coats are made like men's garments. They are not mere cut outs of cloth stitched together. They have padded shoulders, lapels that stay flat and breasts that won't break.

Made of cloths that hold color and hold wear, too—finished by the mills with the idea that they are going to be cleaned a lot. An XTRAGOOD suit means an extra wear suit—not extra price.

MEN HELD ON A SERIOUS CHARGE

E. ROACH, WILLIE ANDERSON AND PAT CASSIDY WILL BE TRIED ON CHARGE OF IMPERSONATING AN OFFICER.

E. Roach, Willie Anderson and Pat Cassidy, all young white men, charged with impersonating an officer, were arraigned before Justice Nickelsen yesterday afternoon for a preliminary hearing, but after three witnesses for the prosecution were examined the attorney for the young men waived further examination and the defendants were held in $200 bond each for trial at the next term of the criminal court.

The young men are charged with threatening the arrest of Miss Mandy Davis and J. J. Brewton, a street car conductor, unless the latter paid them a certain amount of money, because the couple were seen by the young men several nights ago, engaged in conversation on the sidewalk on West Gregory street, near a public school building.

FASTER WORK IN UNLOADING NAVAL STORES

LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE PREPARING TO PLACE HOISTING ENGINE ON CENTRAL WHARF TO UNLOAD VESSELS.

To facilitate the work of unloading cargoes of naval stores from vessels landing at the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company's wharf on Jefferson street, a track is being built on the east side of the wharf to accommodate a hoisting engine.

At present the work of unloading naval stores at this wharf is done by hand.

NEGRO TRIED AND HELD TO THE CRIMINAL COURT

Tom White, colored, who was arrested several nights ago by Captain of Police Hall on the charge of being a dangerous and suspicious character, was given a preliminary hearing before Justice Nickelsen yesterday on the charge of trespassing and held in $50 bond for trial at the next term of the criminal court.

It is charged that White was arrested at an early hour in the morning as he was coming out of the yard at B. R. Pitt's residence.

BEULAH.

Special to The Journal.

Beulah, April 15.—This section was visited by a very hard wind and rain storm Monday night, but no damage was done to crops or fences.

Mr. and Mrs. James Snowden attended Easter services at Pine Forest, conducted by D. W. Bowman.

Little Miss Ruby Dawkins is at home again and the operation appears to have been a success, as she is much better.

Mrs. James Fisher, Sr., was a Pensacola visitor Tuesday.

James Bryant was in Pensacola Tuesday on business.

Mr. Sanders and Arthur Spare were Klondike visitors Tuesday.

Work is reported to be progressing finely on the new railroad through this settlement, and all men seeking employment are being put to work.

KILLED AN ENEMY.
Bon Ami, La., April 15.—Believing that John A. Austin intended to elope with his wife, Harrison Dean late last night shot and killed Austin when the men met. Dean was arrested.

A Mean Trick.
"I thought you said you were going to bring a friend home to dinner with you this evening?" snapped Mrs. Bates, as they seated themselves at a beautifully appointed table.

"He couldn't come," John answered quite calmly.

And then, with no little enjoyment, the clever fellow fell to upon the first decent meal he had sat down to for some weeks.—New York Tribune.
